GS1 Online Training 2024

Barcodes in Retail

Whether new member of GS1, acquired new barcode numbers or just in need of a refresher of the barcode rules? Attend a barcode training workshop at GS1 South Africa right away!

Training benefits:

1. "Get it right the first time" learn how a barcode works & how it benefits the supply chain from Supplier to Retailer to Consumer!
2. Avoid delays in "speed to market", avoid excessive costs in reprinting /re-packaging
3. Strengthen trade partner relations by complying with global standards

Register now! Call +2711 777 3300 services@gs1za.org to learn how you can benefit from this session. Training is free for 1 person from every new GS1 S.A member company when purchasing a range of barcodes. (excl. Single numbers & 10 number ranges)

Online training at these platforms:

Join us for this one-day session & learn the fundamentals of GS1 identifiers for products and locations. This course covers features and use of various GS1 Barcodes. Understand application identifiers (AI's) and how they allow the barcode to carry additional information such as expiration date, batch/lot number. Serial shipping container codes (SSCC), which are used to identify cases, cartons, and pallets. Identify products! Improve business processes! Reduce costs!
